Payable Quarterly.

Admiralty, June 23, 1821.

In order to prevent inconvenience to individual Officers as well as to His Majesty's service, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty think it necessary to remind the Officers of His Majesty's Navy and Royal Marine Forces, that they cannot receive their Half-pay for any period during which they may be absent from this kingdom without their Lordships' leave; and that Officers who may wish to remain abroad beyond their original leave, should take care to apply for a renewal thereof in due time, (stating the date their last letter of leave below) so that such application may be received at this Office prior to the expiration of the former leave, as (unless very special circumstances can be stated in any particular case) no Half-pay can be paid for any period of absence abroad which shall not be covered by their Lordships' leave.

All applications, either for original leave, or for a renewal thereof, whether made through agents or otherwise, must be written by the Officer himself, and addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

This regulation will take effect from this date, with regard to all Officers hereafter applying for leave; and from the First of January next, with regard to Officers now abroad on the Continent of Europe or North America; and after the First of July, 1823, with regard to Officers in other parts of the world.

Nothing herein contained is to authorize any Officer to draw for Half-pay who is not now entitled by Law to do so.

J. W. CROKER.

Admiralty, 30th April, 1820.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have been pleased to direct that, in cases of Officers neglecting to apply for a renewal of leave of absence, a respite shall not be placed against the Half-pay of such Officers until the expiration of three months from the period at which their leave shall have terminated.

By command of their Lordships,

J. W. CROKER.

Admiralty, 4th January, 1811.

By command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, notice is hereby given to all Officers of his Majesty's Navy, and of the Royal Marines, whether on full or Half-pay, that, whenever they may have occasion to address Letters to their Lordships' Secretary, they are to specify their addresses, and to note against their signatures the rank which they may hold in the Royal Navy or Marines, respectively; and, whenever absent on leave, to state the name of the Ship to which they may belong.

AFFIDAVITS FOR HALF PAY.

Admiralty, 4th November, 1823.

His Majesty having been pleased by his Order in Council of the 27th of October last to direct, that from the 1st of January, 1823, the subjoined form of Half-pay Affidavit shall alone be used by all Officers of the Royal Navy and Marines who may not, previous to the said 1st of January, have accepted any Civil Employment at Home or in the Colonies, or under any other Government:—The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty direct that the Officers of the Royal Navy and Marines do in future use the said form accordingly in their Quarterly Half-pay Affidavits;—but Officers now in the possession of any Place or Employment, or who may, prior to the 1st of January next, accept any Place or Employment under the indulgence of the Existing Half-pay Oath, may take the Oath according to the present form, so long as they continue to hold such Place or Employment; but in every case, the Half-pay Affidavit is to contain a denial that the Officer is in Holy Orders.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. W. CROKER.

To all Commissioned Officers of the Royal Navy, and Marines; and to all Masters, Surgeons, Pursers, and Assistant Surgeons.
