

THE DODO.

Resurrected at Malta by the "Victorious."

Something may well be Contributed to the Gaiety of Nations by our Series of Pictures of the Strange Beasts and Birds which British Naval Officers Created in Honor of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall at Malta, and to which Allusion is made on the Opposite Page. Not the Least Interesting surely was the Dodo, that Strange Extinct Bird, of Goblin Aspect here, which saw the Light Anew on board the "Victorious." Laughter Loud and Long Greeted its Launching on the Waters, and Never before had a Dodo in Real Life Witness Events so Impressive.
