Have considered all Shin's Coy Officers & consulted OIC SCU. The only possibility among those concerned would appear to be Mr Dykes for his part in the Mountbatten funeral and his subsequent write up of procedure. He has however received a personal note from Prince Charles and many other letters. An appropriate award might be an ^{MVO} ~~RVM~~ for service to Royalty rather than an MBE/~~RVM~~. First Lieutenant would support an award, and I can easily equate this with the MVO earned by officers organising the RY visits on State occasions.

2. As I was not here at the time I would ^{appreciate} ~~accept~~ Captain's guidance

By Cdr — Agree gist of report fully, but consider it is rather too long at 253 words - will reduce if Captain agrees and so wishes
