

ARMY WAR BADGES ABOLISHED.

An Army Order (No. 484 of 1922) issued yesterday announces that the wearing by soldiers when in uniform of silver war badges, wound stripes, and chevrons denoting service oversea, introduced during the Great War, will be discontinued forthwith.