

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS
ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

Soldiers, Sailors and Airmen of the Allied Expeditionary Force!

You are about to embark upon the Great Crusade, toward which we have striven these many months. The eyes of the world are upon you. The hopes and prayers of liberty-loving people everywhere march with you. In company with our brave Allies and brothers-in-arms on other Fronts, you will bring about the destruction of the German war machine, the elimination of Nazi tyranny over the oppressed peoples of Europe, and security for ourselves in a free world.

Your task will not be an easy one. Your enemy is well trained, well equipped and battle-hardened. He will fight savagely.

But this is the year 1944! Much has happened since the Nazi triumphs of 1940-41. The United Nations have inflicted upon the Germans great defeats, in open battle, man-to-man. Our air offensive has seriously reduced their strength in the air and their capacity to wage war on the ground. Our Home Fronts have given us an overwhelming superiority in weapons and munitions of war, and placed at our disposal great reserves of trained fighting men. The tide has turned! The free men of the world are marching together to Victory!

I have full confidence in your courage, devotion to duty and skill in battle. We will accept nothing less than full Victory!

Good Luck! And let us all beseech the blessing of Almighty God upon this great and noble undertaking.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

For many months I have watched with admiration	5 and pride the officers and men of the home fleet carrying	10 out their many arduous tasks with unflinching zeal and thoroughness	15 now at last victory has come without our being given the chance of	20 bringing the enemy fleet to action at sea but the very fact that he has allowed his ships to be put out of action separately in harbour is a great tribute to the way in which the home	35 fleet has carried out its task. Ships of the home fleet may be	40 called on to carry out tasks to help the settlement of Europe in	45
the near future and I have no doubt that you will tackle	50 them with similar enthusiasm and efficiency. I wish to convey my	55 congratulations and thanks to all officers and men who have	60 earned so well in the home fleet	65

The first sea-lord has answered us follows. Begins On behalf of all officers and men of the royal navy we thank you for your generous message.
(2) Ever since the summer of 1940 the royal navy has been eagerly looking forward to the day when we could land the armies of british empire once again on the continent of europe
(3) We sailors never doubted that when the day came the soldiers would however hard the struggle achieve ultimate victory in battle (4) We have watched with profound admiration the progress of your operations which have inflicted on the enemy an overwhelming and decisive defeat
(5) Our warmest congratulations and best wishes to you and all ranks serving under your command

On the occasion of the surrender of Germany I send to all officers and men in my command my hearty congratulations on the triumphant conclusion of over five and a half years of war in Europe. I thank each one of you personally for the part you have played.
It will go down in history that the Allied Navies carried the Allied expeditionary force to the continent, cleared and opened up the ports and kept the armies and airforces supplied. The fact that over five million men, some nearly one million motor vehicles and more than eighteen million tons of stores have been landed since 1 day a measure of this gigantic task which has enabled our armies to gain their great victories. It is however not the end. Many of you will have the important task of occupying Germany and ensuring that the fruits of our victory will be lasting. Others will go east to defeat the Japanese. I wish each one of you good luck and god speed.
